

The Connection

This spacious home offers style and flexible family living.

From the polished front façade to the outdoor living space, it's flair for quality exudes from every room. The master bedroom is graced with an extensive and functional ensuite and plenty of walk in robe space. With three separate living areas the front lounge is a retreat for the parents, the main living area is styled with an island bench and grandiose walk-in pantry. The kids' quarters is complete with a study nook, a rumpus room and plenty of space for them to grow. A spacious double garage and alfresco/dining complete the picture for this home with plenty of panache.
